WHAT IS QUEST??

QUEST is RIDOT's software for the preparation of Engineer's Estimate, Bid Proposals and Contract Quantities.

WHICH QUEST??

There are two versions of QUEST. QUEST Lite is used by Contractors to import the bid file and generate their bid proposals for construction contracts. QUEST Web is used by RIDOT and Consultants to create the Engineer's Estimate, Distribution of Quantities, Bid Proposals and Bid File for a project. QUEST Web is also used by RIDOT to read the submitted bids and tabulate the bid results.

INSTALLING QUEST

The CDs' are formatted so that when you insert them into your PC's CD-ROM Drive, they will automatically launch Adobe Acrobat Reader and bring you into the project menu. From the menu on the left hand side select QUEST Lite Installation, Complete Installation. Follow the prompts to complete the installation.

STARTING QUEST LITE

An icon for QUEST Lite is created under Start → Programs → QUEST Lite. The very first time you run QUEST Lite you will be asked to enter the Site Code, Bidder Code, and Short Name given to you when you registered as a QUEST Lite user. Log on as “admin”, “admin”.

*** Safeguard this information as you have the only copy available and you will need it again should you have to install QUEST Lite on other PC's (highly recommended) or re-install it for any reason. *****

FIRST THINGS FIRST

Start by entering your company's Default Information. From the Taskbar, select File → Default Company Information. Enter all the relevant information and click on Set Default Data.

It is imperative that the company information that you enter matches the information that you have provided both to RIDOT during QUEST registration and RIDOA during your RIVIP registration. Different entities under your umbrella might need to be registered independently. Check with RIDOT's Contracts and Specifications Office if you are preparing a bid under a different entity.

Chapter 3 of the QUEST Lite User Manual covers the Bid Submission Steps in Detail. A copy of the User Manual is also included with every project CD.

RIDOT strongly encourages the submission of a test bid file with fictitious prices after you have successfully installed QUEST Lite. You can e-mail your test bid to: Quest@dot.ri.gov .

ADDENDA

If there is an addendum on a project, the revised Bid File and Addendum Information in Adobe Acrobat format are posted on the RIVIP Web Page, accessible at <http://www.purchasing.ri.gov>. (see section 3.9 of the User's Manual).

Download and save both the Bid File (*.zip) and Addendum Information (*.pdf) to your hard disk. Review the Addendum Information file for the changes that were made to the contract and import the QUEST Lite Bid File into Quest.

TRAINING

Training in QUEST Lite can be requested through RIDOT's Contracts and Specifications Office. Training courses are usually scheduled in conjunction with pre-bid conferences on different contracts and are held at RIDOT, Two Capitol Hill Room 108, Providence, RI (Tel: 401-222-2495 ext. 4407).

TECHNICAL SUPPORT

Technical Support can be obtained by e-mailing: Quest@dot.ri.gov. In your e-mail please include a description of the problem, the steps you were taking when the problem occurred, the version of QUEST LITE you are using (you can get this clicking on Help → About QUEST Lite), the hardware specifications of your PC, and if possible a screenshot with the error message that you have received. RIDOT's support staff monitor this e-mail address from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm.
